

All about Corporate Traveller

For 30 years, Corporate Traveller has been making business travel easier for our customers. Our unique approach sets us apart from other travel management companies.

Join a global network with local support

With offices across South Africa, we're proud to deliver local, dedicated, and personal service. Your business travel will be managed by experienced experts who have detailed knowledge of your region. As a BBBEE level 1 partner with over 20 years in South Africa, we know what it takes to deliver value. Corporate Traveller is proud of our local team of travel experts across the country.

Refreshing business travel

Corporate Traveller tackles the challenges of business travel differently than the tech-only or high-touch approach that is common. We do this in 3 simple ways.

Simple and fast

Built for the needs of SME businesses, making every trip feel refreshingly easy. We'll work to increase savings, reduce time spent, and enhance the travel experience for all your business travellers.

An unbeatable service experience

Work with a dedicated Travel Manager who understands your business and personalised travel technology that gets your people moving. It's a refreshing approach to service that our customers love.

The best choice of content

Add superior choice, value, and savings to your bottom line. Get unrivalled access to exclusive deals courtesy of Corporate Traveller's partnerships, spanning over 46,000 hotels in 5,405 cities and 210 countries.
